Dear Mr. Hall:

I have your letter of 15 May and want to let you know that I appreciate very much your thoughtfulness in writing to me as you did.

It was a great pleasure for me to participate in the National Defense Executive Reserve Program.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

I wish to express to you personally, the pleasure I experienced in listening to your most enlightening address presented to the group of Executive Reservists on Tuesday, May 12th, at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington.

All of the members of the Reserve with whom I visited after your address, not only expressed their pleasure of attending, but also expressed their appreciation for your breaking into your important and busy schedule for this activity.

Please accept my sincere best wishes for your continued health, and success in your most important activity.

Sincerely yours,

FRED L. HALL
